

Concussion Policy

QAST is committed to ensuring our athlete welfare policies are consistent with best practice.

QAST has established a concussion testing and post-injury 'return to snow' management framework. We take head injuries seriously - all athletes must complete the initial baseline testing procedure and must also follow the concussion management processes & associated clearances before a gradual return to snow.

Athletes won't be permitted to return to training prior to successful completion of the recovery process.